

SOUTHSIDE'S LAST RALLY

Williams, Willard, Lamb and
R. L. Montague Speakers.
Are Hopeful.

"MALICIOUS LIE," SAYS LAMB

Mail Wagon Crushed Into by Street Car—Want United States Flag.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch,
No. 1112 Hull Street.

A last rally was held in Manchester last night under the auspices of the City Central Committee. R. L. French, chairman of the committee, introduced the speakers.

The first to take the floor was Hon. Judge Samuel Williams. Judge Williams discussed the circular recently issued by the Republican Committee in Manchester, saying that the Constitutional Convention had disfranchised in Manchester 1,000 voters, 600 of whom were white men. He denied this statement emphatically, saying that the white voter who had no vote was disfranchised on his own personal responsibility, and that a white face, providing that all registration taxes had been paid, was a passport to any polling place. As for the negro phase of the question, he expressed himself as being glad that the black vote had been cut out. In spite of all the efforts of the Republican party to introduce the negro vote to the detriment of the white vote, he pleaded that every white man of the South do all in his power to uphold southern civilization. Whatever the result of the presidential election, he said, let us see to it that the flower of civilization in the South be not withered by the dark shadow now resting over southern lands.

Attacked Roosevelt.

He attacked Roosevelt, his imperialism, militarism and partiality toward the negro race, and said that if Roosevelt were elected, it would be an endorsement of imperialism and of one-man rule. Lieutenant-Governor Joseph E. Willard devoted most of his talk to the discussion of the tariff question. He took up the steel trusts, showing by argument that the burden of the enormous prices for steel rails rested not on the companies, but on the people who used the cars for personal or freight transportation. His talk was confined mainly to the discussion of the protection policy and an attack on the character and methods of Roosevelt.

Lamb Emphatic.

Hon. John Lamb said that the Republican circular issued to the effect that the Constitutional Convention had disfranchised 600 white voters was a malicious lie. He referred in no terms to Hanson's attack on his (Lamb's) congressional record, in which Hanson had said that he could do in one term what it would take Lamb three terms to do. He then made mention in bitter words to the alleged offer of the Republicans in exchange for Parker votes for Mr. George Hanson. Captain Lamb closed in an eloquent appeal for all Democrats to be at their places at the polls to-day, and vote the straight Democratic ticket.

Mr. R. L. Montague closed the proceedings with a brief speech of encouragement and cheer.

The audience was very attentive to the speakers, and at times waxed enthusiastic. Mr. Willard said, after the meeting was over, that the highest compliment that could be accorded to a speaker was attention, and that he thought the speakers had received that compliment last night.

Car Crashes in Mail Wagon.

A Virginia Passenger and Power Company car crashed into a United States mail wagon at Fourteenth and Hull Streets at 8:45 o'clock last night, completely upsetting the driver, a man named Clarke. The wagon was about demolished. The driver was thrown underneath and so completely dazed by the shock that he did not know whether he had any mail, and if he had, what had become of it. The horse and wagon belonged to Mr. S. L. Hawks, of Swansboro. Hawks was communicated with by the police, informing him of the accident and telling him to send some one down for Mr. Clarke. Dr. T. B. Tucker attended the injured man at the police station, where he remained until he could be sent for.

Wanted United States Flag.

Mayor Pat Granaghan, who has been zealous for a United States flag to float over the public school house, will probably have his heart's desire granted. Mr. Granaghan wanted the flag over the school house because the German vice-consul (Victor) flies the German flag nearby. He has applied to the school board, but receiving no encouragement from them, applied to the Rocky Ridge Council, Jr. O. U. A. M.

Last night Rocky Ridge Council appointed a committee of three—George L. Eubank, A. J. Wall and W. W. Lumpkin—to confer with the other council members as to the matter of raising means to furnish the school with a flag.

Budweiser

First in Sales
Because
First in Quality

100,402,500

Bottles Sold
During 1903

The Largest Sales of any Brand of Bottled Beer

When attending the World's Greatest Fair do not fail to visit

The Anheuser-Busch Brewery

The Home of Budweiser

Orders Promptly Filled by

IOS. STUMPF, Manager Anheuser-Busch Branch, Richmond, Va.

On the definite arrangement of the matter, the committee was ordered to ask the school committee for permission to raise the flag, and in the event of their doing so the ceremony will be performed on Thanksgiving.

Personals and Briefs.

The places for voting to-day are as follows: First Ward, N. P. Bailey, at Williamson's store, Sixth and Hull Streets; Second Ward, M. A. Wrightwell, at the Courthouse; Third Ward, M. A. Wrightwell, at the shoe shop between Eleventh and Twelfth Streets; Fourth Ward, W. L. Porter, at Mrs. A. E. Padon's store, at Fourteenth and Hull Streets.

The Circuit Court convenes next Monday at Chesterfield Court house. The felony cases alone will take ten days for trial.

Mr. Leonidas Williams and Miss Annie Luck were quietly married in the parsonage of the Fifth Street Methodist Church by Rev. A. B. Sharpe.

Councilman C. L. Pettit underwent a painful operation yesterday in having an ingrowing toenail removed.

The street cars were crowded yesterday afternoon and last night with circus-goers.

There is reported to be one rabbit less in Chesterfield county now, as City Sergeant Saunders went hunting yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Gude, of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, will be summoned before the court to show why he should not be fined for driving over the sidewalk at Fifth and Bainbridge Streets. Mr. Gude was engaged in hauling dirt to fill up a leak in the canal there.

Richard Claiborne, colored, was fined $10 for contempt of court. Claiborne, who was a witness in one of the cases before the Mayor, became impudent, but he promptly paid over his fine when called upon.

The Board of Aldermen met last night and concurred in the resolution passed lately by the City Council, providing for the purchase of two pumps, making repairs to a boiler and the purchase of a new one.

The Virginia Quartette will give a concert in Leader Hall Friday night for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS.

Street Railway Association Provides Attractive Programme.

The Virginia Passenger and Power Co., at the Reservoir Park, has arranged a pleasant evening for its members and their friends and families in the nature of an entertainment to-night, provided by the following people: Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Perkins, duet, with violin and piano; Mrs. W. L. Bailey, vocal solo; Miss Lizzie Taylor, recitations; Mrs. Morris, piano; Messrs. E. M. McClure, W. M. Bickers, John Quarles, S. D. Millett and W. L. Bailey, in humorous black-face sketches.

By special arrangement with the Bell Telephone Company, full returns of the election will be announced as received. With the expectation of the people attending the entertainment, lingering to the returns, the ladies of Woman's Auxiliary of the association, have arranged to sell, at popular prices, light luncheon to those who desire it.

The entertainment will be entirely free and the programme will begin at 8:15.

Sneak Thieves Abroad.

The chief of police has received a number of complaints and reports of robbery and attempted robberies by sneak thieves. In no instance has there been a robbery of much importance, but there may be, and the chief advises all householders to keep their doors and windows carefully fastened day and night, thus minimizing the trouble.

It is believed there is a gang of negro youths who are doing the mischief.

Child Badly Burned.

A five-year old negro girl named Leona Bruton, was badly burned at her home, No. 612 East Hyrd Street, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The child was playing with some lighted paper, and was burned about the abdomen and legs. Dr. Perkins, of the ambulance corps, treated her.

JUDGE PARKER AT "LITTLE CHURCH"

How the Democratic Candidate
Spent the Sunday Before Election Day.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—After attending services in the Little Church Around the Corner yesterday morning, Judge Parker took his first ride in the subway. He spent a quiet Sunday, receiving no callers and letting the city at half-past 10 last evening for Exopus, where he will remain over election day.

The street cars were crowded yesterday afternoon and last night with circus-goers. The Democratic National Committee and Arthur McCausland, its secretary, Judge Parker went to church at half-past 10. There was quite a flutter among the church-goers when he entered. An usher led the nominee and his companions to a pew half way up the church aisle. Services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Houghton, but the sermon was preached by the Right Rev. A. H. Mann, Mission Bishop of North Dakota. The Bishop's discourse treated of missions in general and those of North Dakota in particular. After church services were over, Judge Parker, Mr. Parker and Mr. McCausland walked over to Fifth Avenue and strolled northward. The day was fine, and the nominee who is fond of exercise, enjoyed the crisp, bracing air.

MR. BLISS DENIES.

Declares There Was No Such Conference as Gorman Claims.

(By Associated Press.)
BALTIMORE, MD., November 7.—The News of this city, to-day sent to Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the Republican National Committee, an inquiry as to whether he would reply to the charge made by Senator Gorman in a speech on Saturday night that Mr. Bliss and Secretary Root had met in secret conference with a number of trust magnates about a month ago. Mr. Bliss has sent the following answer to the News: "New York, November 7, 1904.

"City Editor.—If Senator Gorman made the statement you quote, I reply no conference of any kind for any purpose has at any time been called by me or held by gentlemen named. The senator has been deceived or is firing in the air, hoping to hit something by a chance shot. (Signed) "C. N. BLISS."

POCAHONTAS RETURNS.

Rebuilt Steamer, More Beautiful,
to Arrive November 15th.

The steamer Pocahontas, of the Virginia Navigation Company, which was partially burned and submerged at her dock last spring, but was subsequently floated, has been rebuilt and remodeled in some respects, making her a finer and handsomer boat than before. The restored steamer will reach the city November 15th, completely rehabilitated and looking like a new boat, as indeed she is in many respects. The steamer was rebuilt at the Roach Shipyards in the Delaware River. In rebuilding her, she was so remodeled that the dimensions of the cabin are reduced somewhat, affording more deck room instead. The promenade deck extends completely around the vessel, a popular feature with boats of such a heavy summer excursion business. The Pocahontas is one of the fastest river boats on the coast, and none of her speed has been sacrificed, the chances all being on the upper works and those of such a nature as to increase rather than diminish speed.

Does Any One Want a Boy?

Superintendent George B. Davis, of the City Hospital, has for adoption a bright four months old baby boy, of good parentage.

But Not by Doctors.

A Cleveland man dropped his vermiform appendix in the corner of a new club house. This was unfortunate. The next thing it will be necessary to operate on that corner-store for appendicitis.—Montgomery Advertiser.

THE TIMES-DISPATCH CORRESPONDENT'S VIEWS

(Continued from First Page.)

In the next House of Representatives, and fear that it may fail to fifteen. The Republican Congressional Committee does not expect to do better than this. It counts upon losing the Second West Virginia and possibly the Third, but claims that Slomp will be re-elected from the Ninth Virginia. The committee expects to lose a member from Massachusetts, one from Pennsylvania, two from New Jersey and possibly two from Wisconsin and one from Maryland, but hopes to gain two from this State.

It would not be surprising should the Democrats organize the next House.

While Parker and Roosevelt have the center of the boards, there are no less than nine national tickets which may be voted on to-morrow, though three of the parties which nominated candidates failed to nominate electors. In addition to the Republicans and Democrats the following parties have tickets in the field: Populist, Prohibition, Socialist and Socialist-Labor. These parties, a labor party existing almost solely in Chicago, the National Liberty and the Lincoln party, the last two negro organizations, did not select electors.

Forty-two States will elect members of the House of Representatives. Maine, Vermont and Oregon elected congressmen yesterday. A Governor and full State ticket will be chosen in each of the following States: Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Tennessee, Utah, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

In South Carolina only the Democratic ticket is in the field. In all the others there are seven or six each, and in Illinois there are seven or six each, and in Illinois public tickets in Delaware, but they differ only in the name of gubernatorial candidates.

In Wisconsin La Follette is the gubernatorial candidate on one Republican ticket against the Steward candidate, representing the Republican bolters.

In Kansas and Nebraska Democrats and Populists have fused except on national tickets.

Populists and Prohibitionists.

The Populists, with Tom Watson as presidential candidate, have State tickets in twelve States, and their national presidential candidate will be voted for in thirty-three States.

Prohibitionists have an electoral and State ticket in twenty-seven, and an electoral ticket in twelve additional States.

Socialists have electoral and State tickets in thirty-two States and electoral tickets in forty-three.

No State officers will be chosen this year in Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi and Virginia.

Legislatures which will be chosen in twenty-three States will elect United States senators. The terms of thirty senators expire March 4, 1906, but seven of the vacancies have already been filled.

PARKER ON HIS FARM.

Judge Receives Many Letters
From Seekers After Office.

(By Associated Press.)
ESOPUS, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Judge Parker resumed supervision of his farm work to-day with apparent zest. He exhibited almost boyish delight at getting back into outdoor life after his busy week of campaigning. He read all of the New York papers before breakfast, dictated a number of letters after the morning and took a long horseback ride, accompanied by Mrs. Parker and his brother, Fred Parker.

The Judge will drive to Kingston early to-morrow to cast his ballot. He will be accompanied by Arthur McCausland, his secretary, who also votes in Kingston. Office seekers have begun to monopolize the incoming Esopus mail, and many letters have been received by the candidate. One which came to-day contained a single sentence, which read: "Please read the last clause of the forty-second verse of the twenty-third chapter of St. Luke." The clause is as follows: "Remember me when Thou comest into Thy kingdom."

GOING HOME TO VOTE.

Government Officials and Others
Leaving Washington.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., November 7.—A few hours before the balloting in the presidential contest finds the national capital practically deserted of all qualified electors. From every department of the government hundreds of officials and clerks have gone home to vote. Among government employees the interest in the contest has been greater than in any election for many years.

The President will go to Oyster Bay to vote, leaving to-night at 12:30 and returning to-morrow evening. That the President is confident of the result of the election no one who talks with him can doubt for a moment. All callers on him to-day found him in the best of spirits, and, without an indication of nervousness or anxiety, he discussed the result of the election as calmly as if he were not a principal in the contest.

President re-iterated the statement made by Chairman Cortelyou, that the campaign for his election had been conducted on the lofty plane of principle and patriotism, and that, if elected, he would enter upon the duties of his high office on the 4th of next March without having made a promise or entered into an obligation, that, in the least way, would embarrass an honest man in administering the affairs of the nation in the interest of all the people of America.

Returns from the election will be received by the President at the White House. In addition to the returns received in the regular telegraph and cipher bureau at the executive offices, important messages and bulletins also will be received in the President's library at the White House.

At the headquarters of the Democratic Congressional Committee in the Riggs Hotel, Secretary Charles A. Edwards will receive the returns from various States and from Democratic national headquarters.

All of the local political organizations have arranged demonstrations for the event of the result coinciding with their views. A big torchlight procession and serenade to President Roosevelt has been projected by the Republicans in the expectation of his election. Should Judge Parker be successful, the Democratic clubs will parade the streets with flags and brass bands.

At the headquarters of both the Republican and Democratic parties to-night the utmost confidence is expressed as to the outlook. This confidence is substantially expressed in the betting on the result, which has been heavier in Washington than ever has been known. The outlook on the general result many wagers have been made to shorter odds.

FEELING RUNS HIGH.

Such Bitterness in New Orleans
That Trouble Is Feared.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW ORLEANS, November 7.—Owing to the bitterness of the municipal campaign, Mayor Cadeville to-day swore in a couple of hundred emergency policemen to be used to-morrow in the event of disturbances at the polls. Besides these each side will have five special officers to represent it at each polling booth. Both home rulers and regulars claimed the city to-night, but the betting favored the regulars. There has been so much preparation to preserve the peace that it is expected the election will pass without violence. A full municipal and parochial ticket, two congress-

Fourquaren, Temple & Co.

Latest Arrivals in Coats and Costumes

We can promise you for Tuesday morning some intensely interesting productions in woman's wearing apparel. A huge assortment of immensely popular new garments, showing styles authoritative, progress up to the minute, and expressing all the excellence and beauty that is the distinguishing mark of the work of master tailors.

This gathering is the direct outcome of a just-concluded visit of our buying staff to the big centers of production. If you have outer garments to buy—of whatever nature—this is the opportunity of the season.

Prices range from $12.50 to $30.00 each.

Amoskeag Outings, 10 Cents a Yard.

Many stores call the same Outings bargains at 12½c. We have a superb assortment of them that covers every requirement of pattern or coloring. They are serviceable and trustworthy, 27-inch, at.....10c

Bargain Blankets. $6.50 Values for $5.

Made in full 11-4 size, of splendid white, long fibre, fleecy California wool. They are full weight and are possessed of that glowing touch that makes them the snuggest possible companion for a winter's night. This beats any Blanket we have ever sold at.....$5.00

White Quilts, $1 Each.

This is the biggest dollar's worth you ever bought in Quilts.

A good, firm texture, 11-4 size, woven in imitation Marseilles patterns.

A durable and slightly quilted at.....$1.00

Huck Towels, $2.48 doz

A very fine, full-sized Towel, with Damask borders and hemstitched ends. It is well woven, strong and absorbent, and is this week's leading bargains in Linens. $2.48 a dozen, instead of $3.00.

Black Broadcloths.

All the elegance and refinement that is natural to black goods seems centered in this season's Broadcloths.

No wonder they hold the position of first choice amongst seekers after handsome dress stuffs. For real beauty of texture and finish they are in a class alone and unapproachable—their popular and much merited revival will be hailed with delight by all good dressers.

The Black Section is showing some of the handsomest Broadcloths we've had in years.

Fine Black Cloths, 52 inches wide, at.....$1.00 to $2.00
Imported Broadcloths, 55 inches wide, at.....$2.50 to $3.50

Eiderdowns.

Folks with an instinct for quality have picked these out before the price was mentioned, and when they have put the two together they have filled their winter wants without further questioning.

There's no getting around these values and prices.

27-inch Eiderdown at.....30c
36-inch Eiderdown at.....$1.50c

Women's Kid Gloves.

To-day's item of especial interest at the Glove Counters is the display of the biggest single shipment of Gloves that has reached us this season.

They came to us on Saturday last from makers no less famous than Perrin Freres. You may expect every newness that the best Gloves are capable of and you may rely on qualities that are unsurpassable.

Every prominent style, every new shading. The value in our dollar Gloves is particularly impressive.

92½c Sheets at 79c.

New York Mills Cotton, of which these Sheets are made, is one of the standard cottons of this country. It is known everywhere and its record is uniformly the highest.

The Sheets are 90x90 inches—full size for double bed, perfectly made, laundered and ready for use.

Italian Silk Blankets.

These are mostly in Roman stripes, with all the brightness and beauty of Eastern colorings. In splendid lustrous silk, adaptable for slumber robes and couch covers.

There is a splendid assortment now on sale; priced very enticingly at $1.25 to $3.00 each.

$1.50 Long Cloth, $1.39

12 yards of this splendid material for $1.39 is but another link in the chain of bargains that will draw discriminating buyers to the annex.

It is a fine, soft, chamomise-finished Long Cloth that you will probably never buy again at such figures.

Fourquaren, Temple & Co.

429 East Broad Street and Annex.

ELECTION RETURNS TO BE DOWN TO-NIGHT

(Continued from First Page.)

MR. WOODSON'S REPORT.

Secretary Shows the Number of Documents Distributed.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Secretary Woodson to-night furnished the following figures regarding the documents sent out by the Democratic: Altogether 43,049,743 documents were sent out, distributed as follows: English documents, 19,603,134; foreign documents, 8,332,095; by the Congressional Committee, 7,309,150; by the German bureau, 7,490,384; by the commercial travelers, 408,000; lithographic, 822,500; buttons, 2,174,604.

BEASLEY—STRETCH.

Cashier of Union Bank Weds in Philadelphia.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., November 7.—Miss George A. Stretch, formerly of this city, but recently of Richmond, Va., became the bride of Mr. Joseph B. Beasley, cashier of the Union Bank, of Richmond, whom she first met while nursing at the home of a friend of her husband's.

Miss Stretch and Mr. Beasley were married in Christ Church, Second Street above Market, at 5:30 o'clock this evening by the Rev. R. H. Barnes, acting rector of the church. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Martha S. Bozorth, of Richmond, and Mr. Beasley was attended by his brother, Harry Beasley, of Petersburg, Va.

The guests were Edwin A. Merrick, of Collingsworth, N. J.; Dr. George S. Robinson, of Holmesburg, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McPherson, and Miss Elaine McPherson, of Bridgeport, N. J.; and Mrs. Louis D. Ziegler, Jr., of this city.

The time will pass pleasantly and with abundant entertainment in the intervals with music by Iardella's Band and with the display of a fine variety of moving pictures. All of this will be free to the public, and may be enjoyed from a position in the south side of the Capitol Square.

Among the moving pictures that will be thrown upon the canvas are these moving scenes: The Human Fly, Furnishing a Flat, The Window Cleaner, Scenes in Egypt, A Workman's Paradise, German Cavalry, Scene of the Westshore Railroad, The Pillow Fight, Groceryman's Revenge, The Inexhaustible Wardrobe, Captain Delaware, Three Old Dicks, Airship, Inexhaustible Cab, General Gits, Off to Bedlam, Grandfather's Reading Glass, Foxy Foxy Grandpa, No. 3, Aunt Mary Receives a Letter, Non-Union Paperhanger, Gulliver on His Travels, Lone Fisherman, Defense of Colors, New Typewriter, Scene on Fifth Avenue at Twenty-third Street, New York City; Washing Cavalry Horses, Congressman's Visit to a Spiritualist, Brooklyn Bridge, Washing the Elephant, Divers at Work, Olympia, O'Hooligan, Inquisitive Clerks, Sentry and the Bear, Farmer's Troubles, Hissing Bear, Sword Fight, Trip to the Moon, Heaving the Log, Train at Helena, Spook Hotel, New York Fire Boat, Volunteer Fire Department, Fire Rescue Scene, Fun on the Beach, Smack, Battleships, Soldiers' Return, How the Leaning School, Target Practice.

Every one is most cordially invited to the Capitol Square to-night.

Soorals Shoes are sold by dealers who want to see their customers get the most for their money—and not by dealers who are trying to make the most out of their customers.—Ady.

Lynchburg People Hear Him and Daniel and Halsey.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., November 7.—Nearly a thousand persons sat for hours to-night at Page's Warehouse to hear the closing of the campaign in strong speeches made by Congressman Glass, Senator Daniel and ex-Senator Don P. Halsey. The rally was enthusiastically received by the names of both Cleveland and Bryan was applauded.

Soorals Shoes are sold by dealers who want to see their customers get the most for their money—and not by dealers who are trying to make the most out of their customers.—Ady.

SAVED FROM OPERATION

2035 Fitzwater St., PHILADELPHIA, PA., Oct. 12, 1903.

I had congestion of the womb and inflammation of the ovaries and my health was so bad that I was unable to attend to my household duties, and was compelled to hire help which I could ill afford to do. My sufferings in the stomach and around the pelvic organs was something awful, and at times it would seem as if my insides were coming out. The doctor said that I must have an operation to get well, but I dreaded the ordeal, and, hearing of Wine of Cardui I tried it. It is the finest medicine I ever used. I felt relieved within a week and kept getting better. I used thirteen bottles before I was well, but that is now five months ago and I have not had any pain since. I do all my work now and never seem to tire.

Mrs. Davis Wilson
VICE-PRESIDENT, READING WOMEN'S CLUB.

Mrs. Davis Wilson.
2035 Fitzwater Street.
Philadelphia, Pa.

WINE OF CARDUI

Analyzing symptoms is not the first step toward securing health. More care to the laws of health and less attention to the symptoms of sickness is what is needed. When you buy a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui you have secured a bottle of medicine which has given 1,500,000 suffering women health.

Why pay a specialist to tell you what is wrong with you and pay the price of a dozen bottles of Wine of Card